Decision in Game

FINAL SCORE IS 7 TO 6

Sixteen First Downs Were
Racked Up by The
Visitors

Bristol High dropped a one-point decision to Conshohocken High, 7-6, last night, on the high school field. The visitors outplayed the Warriors from the start but their fine running attack seemed to bog down when within sight of the Bristol goal-line.

Sixteen first downs were racked up by the Golden Bears while the Warriors had two. The absence of "Bill" Moll from the Bristol lineup had a telling effect on the team as on several occasions when a few yards were needed Bristol failed to dent the Conshohocken line.

Bristol made its only score of the game in the second period and the second time it had the ball in the contest. Conshohocken had the piskin almost the entire first period, finally booting to Bristol near the close of the session.

Bristol took over on its own 31 after Conshohocken's passing attack was grounded. Petrizzi made two yards at center but on a delayed buck Al Daniel, was shoved back for a two-yard loss. On the third down, Andy Accardi backed up to the 25-yard line and heaved a pass towards Frank Rich. Rich leaped high into the air to snatch the ball and got away from two would-be tacklers to score. He was at mid-field when he caught the oval and ran 50 yards to complete the 75-yard pass. "Al" Monte's drop-kick for the extra point was blocked by Bud Hamann.

Despite the several threats by the invaders, Bristol managed to hold on to the 6-0 lead until the third period got underway. Platelli kicked to Petrizzi who went to the 30. On the second play, Accardi passed to Rich for a first down on Bristol's 46. Daniels caught a pass for a 7-yard gain but Conshohocken held and Rich kicked to Marine on the 15. He ran it back to the 25.

From here, the boys of Coach Harry Fox went into high gear. "Russ" Graham was the main cog as he tore the Bristol line to shreds. He hit the left side for 6 yards and followed with a first down on the 41. He crossed the mid-field stripe on the next play and was downed on Bristol's 40. Bob Weidner again handed the ball to Graham but Graceon White got him for a 2-yard loss. Ken DeCarlo went off tackle for 7 yards and Weidner pulled the quarterback sneak for a first down on the Warriors' 20. DeCarlo sliced off the left side for 6 yards and again Russ Graham socked the line for the fourth consecutive first down as the ball rested on the 2-yard line. Graham had no trouble in scoring the touchdown which deadlocked the count.

The all-important extra point was made by Al Smith, fleet-footed halfback of the Bears. Smith seemed to be trapped behind the line of scrimmage when he cut loose and hit the right side of Bristol's line to cross the goal-line for the deciding point.

House Numbers Nearly
All Assigned in Croydon

The work of assigning house numbers in Croydon, Croydon Manor, Maple Shade and Bristol Heights has been ended insofar as the house numbering committee is concerned. They have been in continual operation since June 1st, and have assigned over 1300 house numbers.

Judging from the words of appreciation from business houses having delivery service within the area, as well as local merchants, doctors and other professional men, the labor of the volunteer committee was a civic duty well done. These words of commendation are the only recompense the house numbering committee will receive, it is stated.

Many estimates have been made as to the population of the area to be served by the Croydon Post Office, as above mentioned, and it will surprise some to learn that the population is 5,018. This will be further increased by those who have not yet filed their application for house numbers.

The committee has repeatedly urged all to affix their house numbers and install suitable mail receptacles, but it is found that some have neglected to do so. The postal authorities have already made a "spot check" and are not satisfied that a sufficient proportion have complied with postal regulations to warrant starting city delivery of mail. They further call attention that mail is not being addressed to house number and street.

The house numbering committee, comprising James E. Harris, chairman; William D. Knight, Howard Taylor, Earl Buck, Julie Koob, Olga Miller and Anne Barner, express appreciation to the residents of the area for the co-operation in filling out the questionnaire. The response is praiseworthy.

Tuesday Evening

YOUTH CENTER PLANS

NEWTOWN, Oct. 8 — With some changes made in plans, all is in readiness now for the open air rally and parade next Tuesday evening in this community.

The old foundry, north State street, is to be converted into a center for youth and adult recreation, directors of Neshaminy Valley Youth Center reveal. The rally and parade of Tuesday will feature Paul Whiteman.

The rally is to take place on Pickering field, at 8:30, instead of on north State street as previously arranged.

The building which will be converted was deeded to Neshaminy Valley Youth Center last summer to be made into an adequate home for community recreation. An important part of the rally on Tuesday night will be the explanation of how the youth center organization plans to re-make the old foundry.

So great has been the public response to date for the Paul Whiteman rally, it is disclosed that about 19 or 20 separate units will take part in a torchlight parade. The location of the rally has been changed to Pickering Field on Jefferson street between Chancellor and Lincoln. The parade will form at the field and moving at 7:30 p. m., proceed south on Chancellor to Sterling, to State and to Jefferson then to Pickering Field. Upon arrival at the field the parading units will form around the field and the several musical organizations will give short exhibitions after which the rally will get under way with Whiteman in charge.

IMPACT OF STEEL STRIKE

Seriousness of the steel strike should not be minimized. If it is prolonged, many millions of men will be out of work.

Already, in widely separated places, the effects of the strike are beginning to be felt. Ore carriers on the Great Lakes are idle in various lake ports. Railroads have laid off additional thousands, on top of mass layoffs caused by Lewis' soft coal strike. And this is only the beginning.

Major steel consuming industries, by best estimates, have inventories to last approximately one month. But the supplies of many steel fabricators, who work closer to the vest, may be depleted sooner.

If the strike drags out to as long as a month, the effects will snowball rapidly into an acute situation. By that time automobile plants would be closed and production of aircraft and other equipment for the armed forces would be jeopardized. If this point is reached, national security, as well as national welfare, will be threatened.

If he hasn't done so before this critical point is reached, President Truman must then step in and seize the plants—as he is empowered to do under the Selective Service Act of 1948—or invoke the provisions of the Taft-Hartley Act.

The steel shutdown is especially unfortunate at a time when "disinflation" was bringing about an adjustment of prices, production and inventories. If the country is again to be subjected to the economic anarchy imposed upon it by the unions in 1946—a situation which resulted in passage by Congress of the Taft-Hartley Act—the public may be brought to the realization that this law did not go far enough.

MOVE AGAINST CHISELERS

Bureau of Employment Security, in the U. S. Department of Labor, has finally moved against the chiselers who have been collecting unemployment benefits to which they were not entitled.

The practice is reported to have been general over the nation, but—as might have been expected—the most flagrant cases were discovered in New York City. There hundreds who were drawing unemployment compensation were located sojourning in Florida. An interstate conference of employment security agencies, just held, has worked out plans to attempt to circumvent further chiseling.

Under the new rules no person can draw compensation who is not available in his own labor market, or is not available for any other reason for jobs when offered. The plan is to make it tough for those who would unfairly and dishonestly profit from the unemployment dole.

The unemployment law is an emergency measure, designed to prevent suffering of those temporarily out of work. It was not intended to place a premium on loafing.

Today's Quiet Moment

By the Rev. R. L. Carlson
Pastor
Harriman Methodist Church

Jesus said, "I am come that ye might have life and have it more abundantly." This abundant life meant both victory and hope. Victory in the present life and hope for that to come. Jesus provided for Eternal life. Through His death and resurrection He provided reconciliation and hope, that those who believe on Him should not perish for their sins but have everlasting life. "For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life." John 3:16.

"Mooney" Denny and Stan Leinski will be the St. Ann's starting ends, with Sozio and Wade being the tackles. The guards will be Tom Profy and Buster Monachello. Center will be occupied by Nick Lemma with the backfield being made up of Joe Elmer, Joe Napoli, Leo Fiorelli and Bill Marion.

Both teams have quite an array of substitutes who are expected to see action in the contest.

Bristol High Drops Close Game To Conshohocken

The lads of Coach McClister threatened several times after Conshohocken took the lead. Coach McClister sent in Harry Eisenbrey to throw passes and "Bisey" seemed to be hitting his targets but the boys were not holding on to the ball.

The most important of the last quarter threats came following the touchdown. Conshohocken had kicked off to Eisenbrey who ran to his 36. After Daniels was tossed out of bounds on an end run, Eisenbrey lined a pass to Joe Dominick. Dominick was in the clear when the ball hit his chest and bounded off. Eisenbrey fooled Conshohocken on the next play and instead of throwing made a line thrust which gave the Warriors a first down on the visitors' 48. Daniels clicked off four yards but a penalty hurt the Warriors. Eisenbrey passed to Sam Petrizzi but was short of a first down so Rich kicked to Graham who was nailed on his 20.

Bristol held, so Conshy kicked back to the Bristol 48. From here Eisenbrey whipped a long pass to Frank Rich. The latter caught the ball on the 12-yard line but as he began to run towards the goal-line he dropped the ball. Joe Dominick, who was running alongside of Rich for interference, jumped on the pigskin but it got away from him and was recovered by Graham on the Conshohocken 8-yard line.

With less than two minutes remaining to be played, Coach McClister sent in "Jim" Gallagher, a fresh end, to try for a pass. Eisenbrey threw the pass in Gallagher's direction, the ball bounced off the hands of a Conshohocken player, but Gallagher was just a little too far off as the ball hit him on the side. A catch here would have proved disastrous to Conshohocken as Gallagher was ahead of the field. Before the final whistle, Eisenbrey completed passes to Rich and Daniel.

"Russ" Graham was the thorn to the Bristol team. He hit the line terrifically and chalked up most of Conshohocken's first downs.

With Moll out of action Daniel did most of the ball-carrying for Bristol while the work of Graceon White and Bud Weida in the line was outstanding. Frank Rich's punting pulled Bristol out of several danger spots.

Bristol meets Council Rock in a Lower Bucks League game next Friday night on the home gridiron.

BRISTOL HIGH
DROPS CLOSE GAME
TO CONSHOHOCKENWarriors Lose a One-Point
Decision in Game
Here

FINAL SCORE IS 7 TO 6

Sixteen First Downs Were
Racked Up by The
Visitors

Bristol High dropped a one-point decision to Conshohocken High, 7-6, last night, on the high school field. The visitors outplayed the Warriors from the start but their fine running attack seemed to bog down when within sight of the Bristol goal-line.

Sixteen first downs were racked up by the Golden Bears while the Warriors had two. The absence of "Bill" Moll from the Bristol lineup had a telling effect on the team as on several occasions when a few yards were needed Bristol failed to dent the Conshohocken line.

Bristol made its only score of the game in the second period and the second time it had the ball in the contest. Conshohocken had the piki almost the entire first period, finally booting to Bristol near the close of the session.

Bristol took over on its own 31 after Conshohocken's passing attack was grounded. Petrizzini made two yards at center but on a delayed buck Al Daniel, was shoved back for a two-yard loss. On the third down, Andy Accardi backed up to the 25-yard line and heaved a pass towards Frank Rich. Rich leaped high into the air to snatch the ball and got away from two would-be tacklers to score. He was at mid-field when he caught the oval and ran 50 yards to complete the 75-yard pass. "Al" Monte's drop-kick for the extra point was blocked by Bud Hannum.

Despite the several threats by the invaders, Bristol managed to hold on to the 6-0 lead until the third period got underway. Petrizzini kicked to Petrizzini who went to the 30. On the second play, Accardi passed to Rich for a first down on Bristol's 46. Daniels caught a pass for a 7-yard gain but Conshohocken held and Rich kicked to Marine on the 15. He ran it back to the 25.

From here, the boys of Coach Harry Fox went into high gear. "Russ" Graham was the main cog as he tore the Bristol line to shreds. He hit the left side for 6 yards and followed with a first down on the 41. He crossed the mid-field stripe on the next play and was downed on Bristol's 40. Bob Weidner again handed the ball to Graham but Graceon White got him for a 2-yard loss. Ken DeCarlo went off tackle for 7 yards and Weidner pulled the quarterback sneak for a first down on the Warriors' 20. DeCarlo sliced off the left side for 6 yards and again Russ Graham socked the line for the fourth consecutive first down as the ball rested on the 2-yard line. Graham had no trouble in scoring the touchdown which deadlocked the count.

The all-important extra point was made by Al Smith, fleet-footed halfback of the Bears. Smith seemed to be trapped behind the line of scrimmage when he cut loose and hit the right side of Bristol's line to cross the goal-line for the deciding point.

Police Officers Must Sign
Pledge of Americanism

Members of Bucks Lodge No. 53, Fraternal Order of Police, met in Warminster fire hall in monthly session. Included in the many discussions which took place, was the subject of pistol shooting and the possibility of forming teams to improve their marksmanship.

An affidavit was received from the Grand Lodge stating the fact that all officers of the lodges of Fraternal Order of Police must sign a pledge of Americanism in order to hold their respective offices in the Lodge.

A number of associate members were voted into the organization and after all business was taken care of, refreshments were served. The lodge now totals 43 active police officers as members, with associate members totaling 58.

House Numbers Nearly
All Assigned in Croydon

The work of assigning house numbers in Croydon, Croydon Manor, Maple Shade and Bristol Heights has been ended insofar as the house numbering committee is concerned. They have been in continual operation since June 1st, and have assigned over 1300 house numbers.

Judging from the words of appreciation from business houses having delivery service within the area, as well as local merchants, doctors and other professional men, the labor of the volunteer committee was a civic duty well done. These words of commendation are the only recompense the house numbering committee will receive, it is stated.

Many estimates have been made as to the population of the area to be served by the Croydon Post Office, as above mentioned, and it will surprise some to learn that the population is 5,018. This will be further increased by those who have not yet filed their application for house numbers.

The committee has repeatedly urged all to affix their house numbers and install suitable mail receptacles, but it is found that some have neglected to do so. The postal authorities have already made a "spot check" and are not satisfied that a sufficient proportion have complied with postal regulations to warrant starting city delivery of mail. They further call attention that mail is not being addressed to house number and street.

The house numbering committee, comprising James E. Harris, chairman; William D. Knight, Howard Taylor, Earl Buck, Julie Koob, Olga Miller and Anne Barner, express appreciation to the residents of the area for the co-operation in filling out the questionnaire. The response is praiseworthy.

Grzesiak and Mangeney
Nuptials Solemnized

CORNWELLS HEIGHTS, Oct. 8 — The marriage of Miss Ann Mangeney, of "Tall Trees," Torresdale Manor, and Mr. Bernard Grzesiak, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Grzesiak, Philadelphia, was solemnized at a nuptial mass this morning at 11, in St. Charles' R. C. Church. The Rev. Fr. McDevitt officiated.

The bride, who was escorted to the altar by her brother-in-law, Mr. Carl Loesch, wore a white chiffon velvet dress, made with a sweetheart neckline, fitted bodice, and a full skirt. The neckline was trimmed with imported French lace, as were the long sleeves which came to points over her hands. The skirt was hooped, with two small pickups, revealing ruffles of imported lace. The veil was of fingertip length, falling from a halo braid of the chiffon velvet, a three strand pearl necklace and white doekin shoes completed her costume. The bride carried a cascade bouquet of pompon mums.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Carl Loesch, sister of the bride, wore a gown of emerald green nylon faille, made with a high neckline, and featuring a long torso effect, with a full skirt and long sleeves. Her headpiece was a halo braid, and she wore green doekin shoes. A three-strand pearl necklace completed her ensemble. The attendant carried a cascade of rust and yellow pompon 'mums.

Mr. Edward Grzesiak, Philadelphia, attended his brother. At the statue of the Blessed Virgin, the sisters had placed a bouquet of pink carnations in memory of their mother.

After the ceremony, the bride and bridegroom greeted their friends on the lawn of the church. A wedding breakfast for 30 guests took place at 12:30 p. m. at the Peacock Club, Andalusia, after which the two left for a honeymoon in the Pocono Mountains. They will reside in Croydon Manor.

RALLY AND PARADE
TO BE A BIG EVENTNewtown Function To Feature
Paul Whiteman On
Tuesday Evening

YOUTH CENTER PLANS

NEWTOWN, Oct. 8 — With some changes made in plans, all is in readiness now for the open air rally and parade next Tuesday evening in this community.

The old foundry, north State street, is to be converted into a center for youth and adult recreation, directors of Neshaminy Valley Youth Center reveal. The rally and parade of Tuesday will feature Paul Whiteman.

The rally is to take place on Pickering field, at 8:30, instead of on north State street as previously arranged.

The building which will be converted was decided to Neshaminy Valley Youth Center last summer to be made into an adequate home for community recreation. An important part of the rally on Tuesday night will be the explanation of how the youth center organization plans to re-make the old foundry.

So great has been the public response to date for the Paul Whiteman rally, it is disclosed that about 19 or 20 separate units will take part in a torchlight parade. The location of the rally has been changed to Pickering Field on Jefferson street between Chancellor and Lincoln. The parade will form at the field and moving at 7:30 p. m., proceed south on Chancellor to Sterling, to State and to Jefferson then to Pickering Field. Upon arrival at the field the parading units will form around the field and the several musical organizations will give short exhibitions after which the rally will get under way with Whiteman in charge.

Among the units which are scheduled to take part in the parade and rally, weather permitting, are the Langhorne Soby Post cadet bugle corps, Pennell string band, and Council Rock high school band.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 8, 1949
IMPACT OF STEEL STRIKE
Seriousness of the steel strike should not be minimized. If it is prolonged, many millions of men will be out of work.
Already, in widely separated places, the effects of the strike are beginning to be felt. Ore carriers on the Great Lakes are idle in various lake ports. Railroads have laid off additional thousands, on top of mass layoffs caused by Lewis' soft coal strike. And this is only the beginning.
Major steel consuming industries, by best estimates, have inventories to last approximately one month. But the supplies of many steel fabricators, who work closer to the vest, may be depleted sooner.
If the strike drags out to as long as a month, the effects will snowball rapidly into an acute situation. By that time automobile plants would be closed and production of aircraft and other equipment for the armed forces would be jeopardized. If this point is reached, national security, as well as national welfare, will be threatened.
If he hasn't done so before this critical point is reached, President Truman must then step in and seize the plants—as he is empowered to do under the Selective Service Act of 1948—or invoke the provisions of the Taft-Hartley Act.
The steel shutdown is especially unfortunate at a time when "disinflation" was bringing about an adjustment of prices, production and inventories. If the country is again to be subjected to the economic anarchy imposed upon it by the unions in 1946—a situation which resulted in passage by Congress of the Taft-Hartley Act—the public may be brought to the realization that this law did not go far enough.

MOVE AGAINST CHISELERS
Bureau of Employment Security, in the U. S. Department of Labor, has finally moved against the chiselers who have been collecting unemployment benefits to which they were not entitled.
The practice is reported to have been general over the nation, but—as might have been expected—the most flagrant cases were discovered in New York City. There hundreds who were drawing unemployment compensation were located sojourning in Florida. An interstate conference of employment security agencies, just held, has worked out plans to attempt to circumvent further chiseling.
Under the new rules no person can draw compensation who is not available in his own labor market, or is not available for any other reason for jobs when offered. The plan is to make it tough for those who would unfairly and dishonestly profit from the unemployment dole.

The unemployment law is an emergency measure, designed to prevent suffering of those temporarily out of work. It was not intended to place a premium on loafing.

Michaeline Lonzenski and Joseph Kryven Take Vows

Escorted to the altar of St. Mark's R. C. Church this morning at 10 o'clock by her uncle, Mr. Sylvester Bartnick, of Stamford, Conn., Miss Michaeline S. Lonzenski, 426 Jefferson avenue, daughter of Mrs. Leona Lonzenski, of McAdoo, was united in marriage to Mr. Joseph Kryven, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Kryven, 276 Hayes street. The officiating priest was the Rev. Paul Baird; and presiding at the organ was Miss Katherine Keating, of Linden street.

The bridal costume was lace-trimmed, white satin, entrain. With this gown was worn a veil of finger-tip length, and the bridal bouquet was composed of white roses. The trio of young women attending the bride was inclusive of: Maid of honor, Miss Florence Nowack, West Bristol, attired in blue; bridesmaids—Miss Florence Lonzenski, of McAdoo, a sister, and Miss Phyllis Bartnick, of Stamford, wearing pink. The gowns were floor-length and of satin. Their coachman style hats matched the gowns. The maid of honor carried pink gladioli; and the bridesmaids blue toned "glads."

Mr. John Kryven, Hayes street, served his brother as best man; and the ushers were Mr. Theodore Kryven, Hayes street, another brother; and Mr. Henry Bartnick, of Newark, N. J., a cousin of the bride.

Following a reception at the bride's home, where dinner was served, Mr. and Mrs. Kryven left for a two weeks trip by motor through the New England states and to parts of Canada. They will reside at 426 Jefferson avenue. Mrs. Kryven is a graduate of McAdoo high school, and is employed at Spencer's Furniture Store. The bridegroom is an employee of Pacific Steel Boiler Corp.

Today's Quiet Moment

By the Rev. R. L. Carlson
Pastor
Harriman Methodist Church

Jesus said, "I am come that ye might have life and have it more abundantly." This abundant life meant both victory and hope. Victory in the present life and hope for that to come. Jesus provided for Eternal life. Through His death and resurrection He provided reconciliation and hope, that those who believe on Him should not perish for their sins but have everlasting life. "For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life." John 3:16.

"Mooney" Denny and Stan Lesinski will be the St. Ann's starting ends, with Sozio and Wade being the tackles. The guards will be Tom Profy and Buster Monachello. Center will be occupied by Nick Lomma with the backfield being made up of Joe Elmer, Joe Napoli, Leo Fiorelli and Bill Marion.

Both teams have quite an array of substitutes who are expected to see action in the contest.

The lads of Coach McClister threatened several times after Conshohocken took the lead. Coach McClister sent in Harry Eisenbrey to throw passes and "Eisey" seemed to be hitting his targets but the boys were not holding on to the ball.

The most important of the last quarter threats came following the touchdown. Conshohocken had kicked off to Eisenbrey who ran to his 36. After Daniels was tossed out of bounds on an end run, Eisenbrey lined a pass to Joe Dominick. Dominick was in the clear when the ball hit his chest and bounded off. Eisenbrey fooled Conshohocken on the next play and instead of throwing made a line thrust which gave the Warriors a first down on the visitors' 48. Daniels, clicked off four yards but a penalty hurt the Warriors. Eisenbrey passed to Sam Petrizzi but was short of a first down so Rich kicked to Graham who was nailed on the 20.

Bristol held, so Conshy kicked back to the Bristol 48. From here Eisenbrey whipped a long pass to Frank Rich. The latter caught the ball on the 12-yard line but as he began to run towards the goal-line he dropped the ball. Joe Dominick, who was running alongside of Rich for interference, jumped on the pike but it got away from him and was recovered by Graham on the Conshohocken 8-yard line.

With less than two minutes remaining to be played, Coach McClister sent in "Jim" Gallagher, a fresh end, to try for a pass. Eisenbrey threw the pass in Gallagher's direction, the ball bounced off the hands of a Conshohocken player, but Gallagher was just a little too far off as the ball hit him on the side. A catch here would have proved disastrous to Conshohocken as Gallagher was ahead of the field.

Before the final whistle, Eisenbrey completed passes to Rich and Daniel.

"Russ" Graham was the thorn to the Bristol team. He hit the line terrifically and chalked up most of Conshohocken's first downs.

With Moll out of action Daniel did most of the ball-carrying for Bristol while the work of Graceon White and Bud Weida in the line was outstanding. Frank Rich's punting pulled Bristol but of several danger spots.

Father Escorts Miss Lineman To Altar

The bridesmaids, Miss Theresa Lineman, sister of the bride, and Miss Dorothy Jones, Philadelphia, sister of the bridegroom, were attired in satin gowns fashioned alike, that of Miss Lineman being maroon and that of Miss Jones, Kelly green. They were made with an off-shoulder effect in lace, with tight fitting bodices and long full skirts. A row of buttons extended down the center front of the bodice. Lace mitts, large picture hats in matching satin, and white slippers were worn. Both wore pearls. They carried arm bouquets of large yellow mums tied with yellow satin ribbons.

The bridegroom was attended by his brother, Mr. Frank Jones, as best man; and Mr. Joseph X. Ryan and Mr. Albert J. Lineman as ushers.

Mrs. Russell Dunn presided at the organ and Mr. Harry Lineman, Philadelphia, soloist, rendered the hymns, "On This Day, O Beautiful Mother," "Mother at your feet is kneeling," "Oh, Lord I Am Not Worthy," and "Ave Maria."
